

FY2020 - 2023 Japan Medical Library Association Core Project Objectives

Core target	Measures	Supervising committee	Action plan
1. Support for academic information services	Promotion of library collection donation system Development of new publishing projects	Planning and Public Relations Committee Publications Committee	Promotion of donations to the National Diet Library Consideration of new E-books and other publications useful to members
2. Professional public contribution	Provision of literature search services Support for provision of consumer health information Evaluation of the medical librarian certification system and implementation of a study toward accreditation for library functions	Project Contract Committee, Continuing Education and Research Committee Health Information Service Committee Professional Credentials Committee	Positioning of literature search as a library task and training for relevant staff Implementation of on-site surveying for patient library standardization and establishment of a system for functional evaluation
3. Sustainable development of JMLA	Issue resolution	Executive Committee, Organization and Bylaws Committee, Secretariat	Membership promotion, project evaluation, planning
	Enhancement of member services	Executive Committee, Planning and Public Relations Committee, Continuing Education and Research Committee	Implementation of e-learning and conferencing systems